

Do you want a Customer Service job in Banking?

First Nations paid traineeships available now

This is a paid, 12-month full-time traineeship open to First Nations participants.

With the guidance of experienced mentors, you'll undertake training towards a Certificate III in Business, while working for one of the Big Four banks.

You'll be learning about all operations of retail banking in a branch environment; providing support to customers through telling duties, concierge (greeting customers as they enter the branch), money handling and opening/closing tasks.

What's in it for you?

- Earn money while you undertake a full-time traineeship
- Develop your work-ready skills
- Get on-the-job experience working with qualified mentors
- Gain a nationally-recognised qualification in Customer Service
- A real opportunity for ongoing employment upon successful completion
